HOME-TOWN ECHOES

By C. Kessler

SEASIDE INN
SHORE DINNER #2.

LOBSTERS 50¢

KEEP GOING – THERE'S ANOTHER PLACE FURTHER ON WHERE WE CAN GET A SHORE DINNER FOR A DOLLAR AND A HALF!

SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY

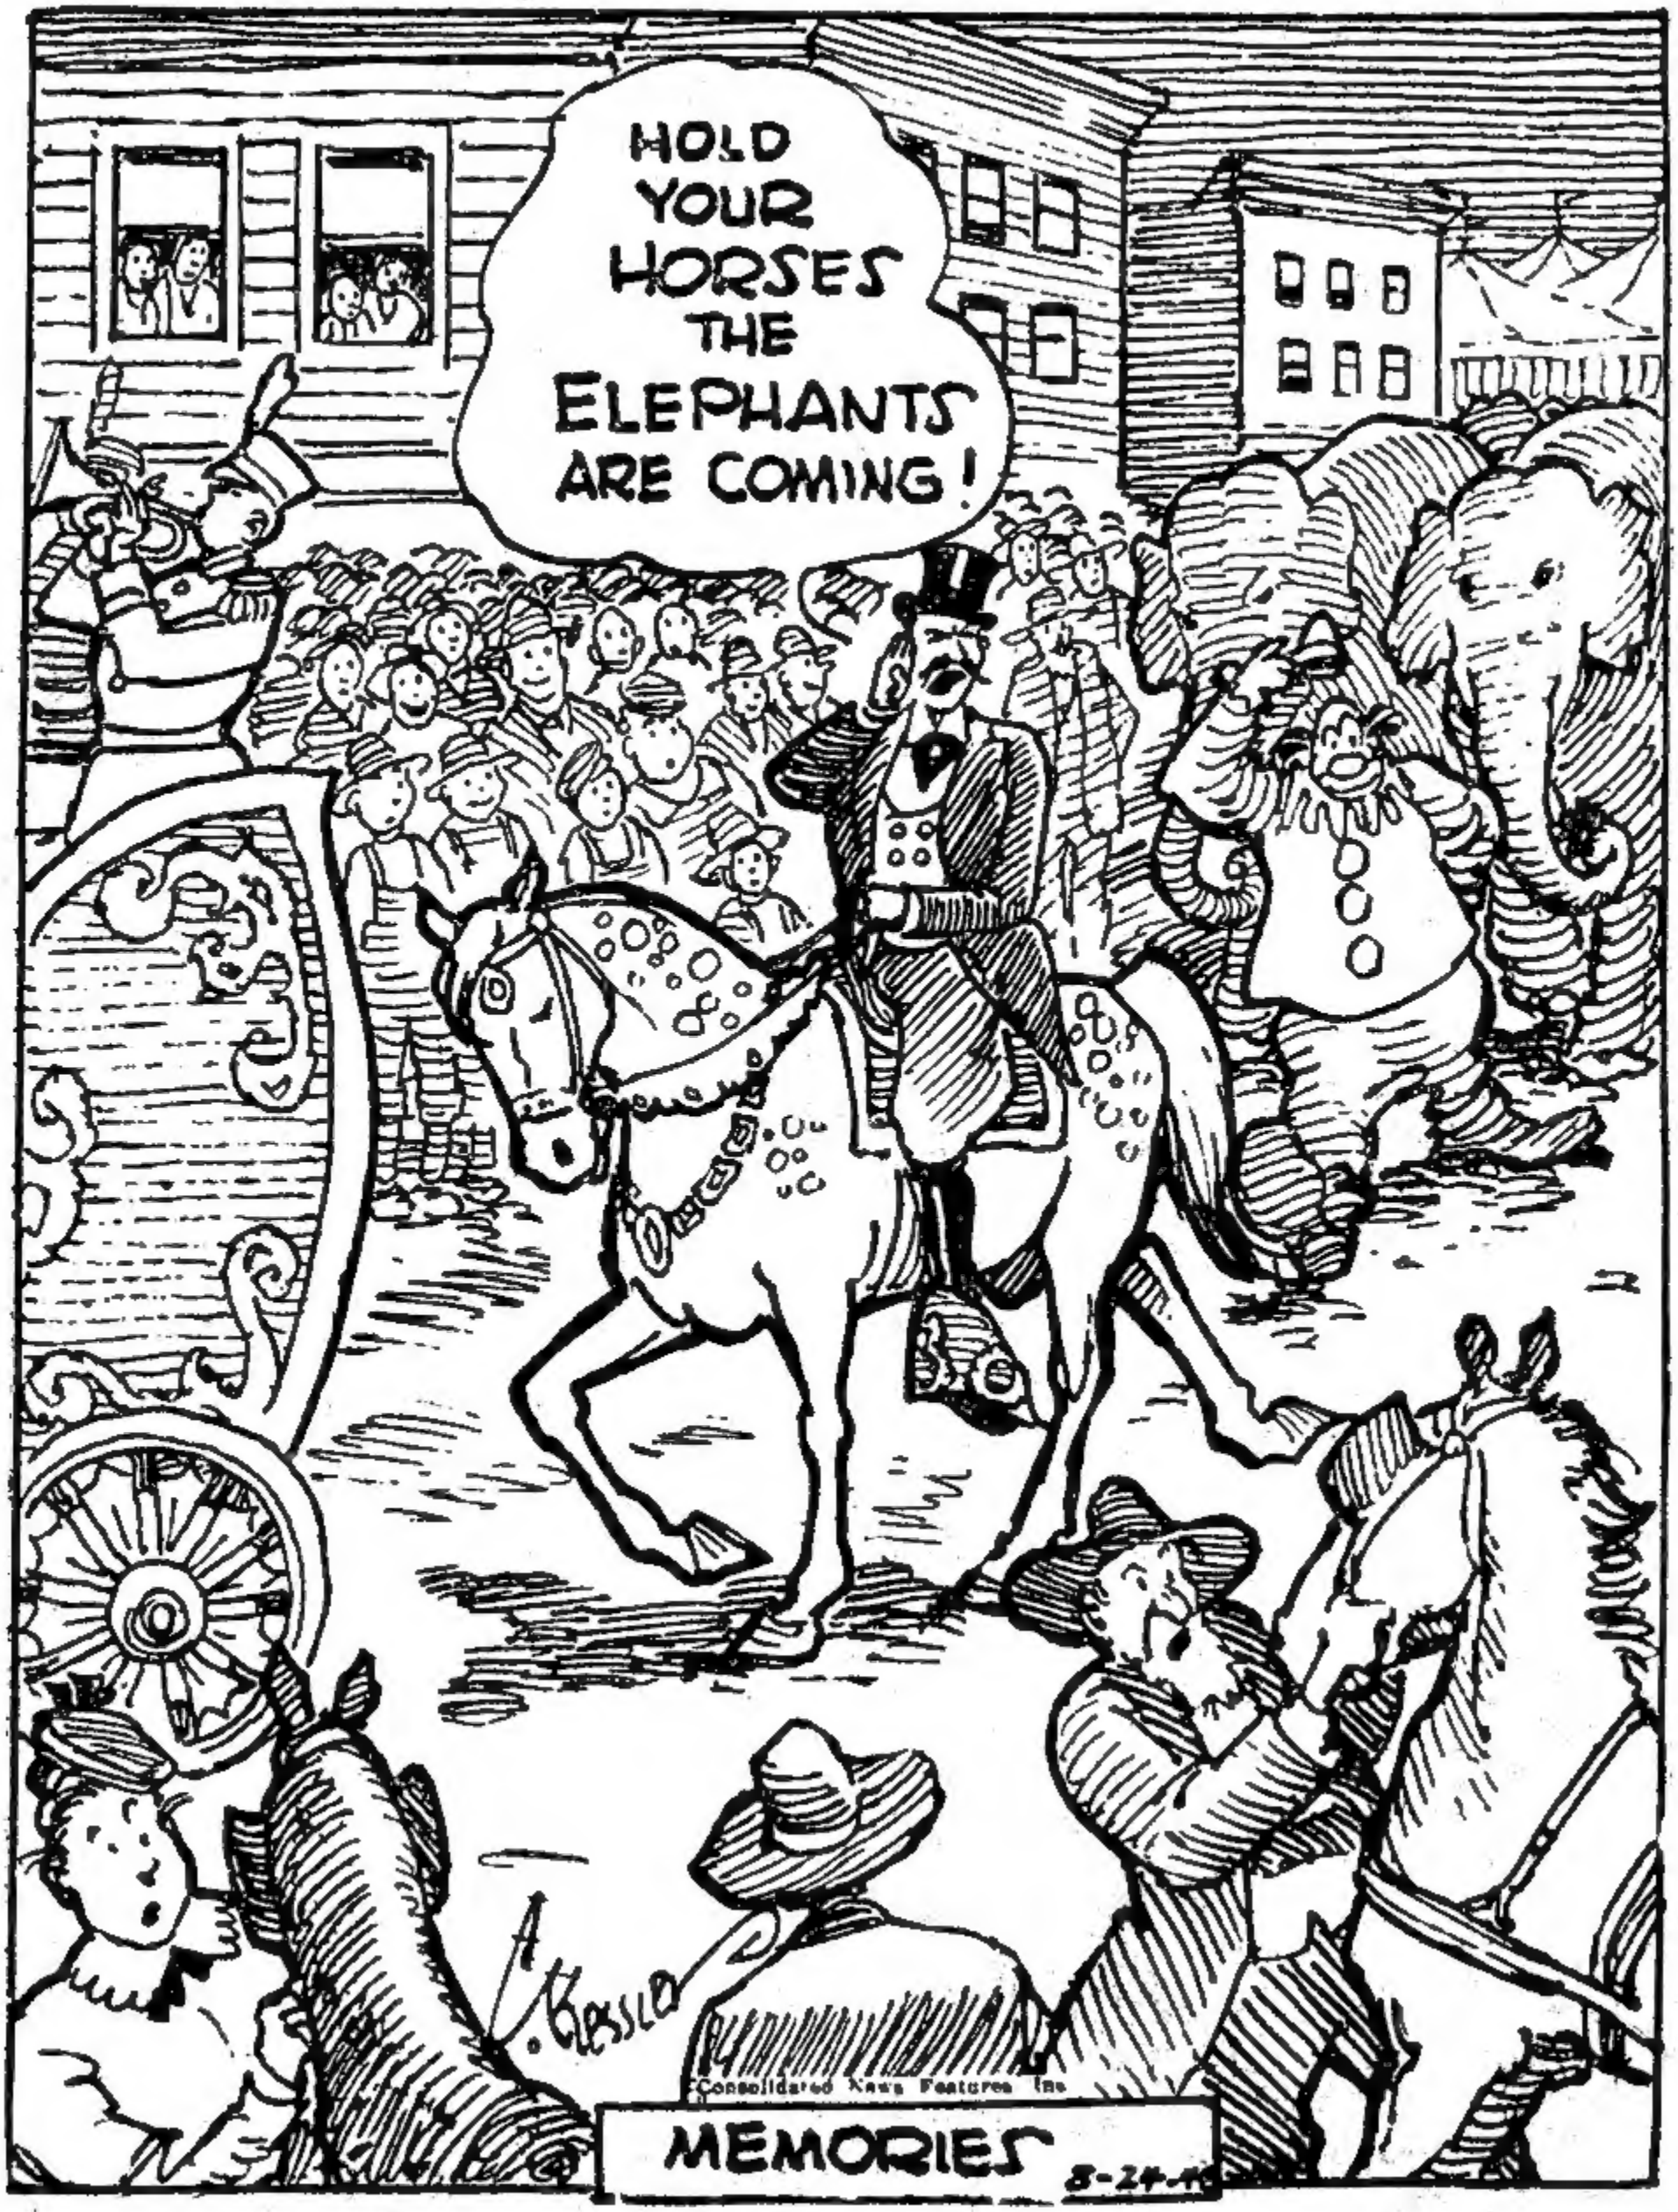
C. Kessler

Consolidated News Features, Inc.

3-17-45

HOME-TOWN ECHOES

By C. Kessler



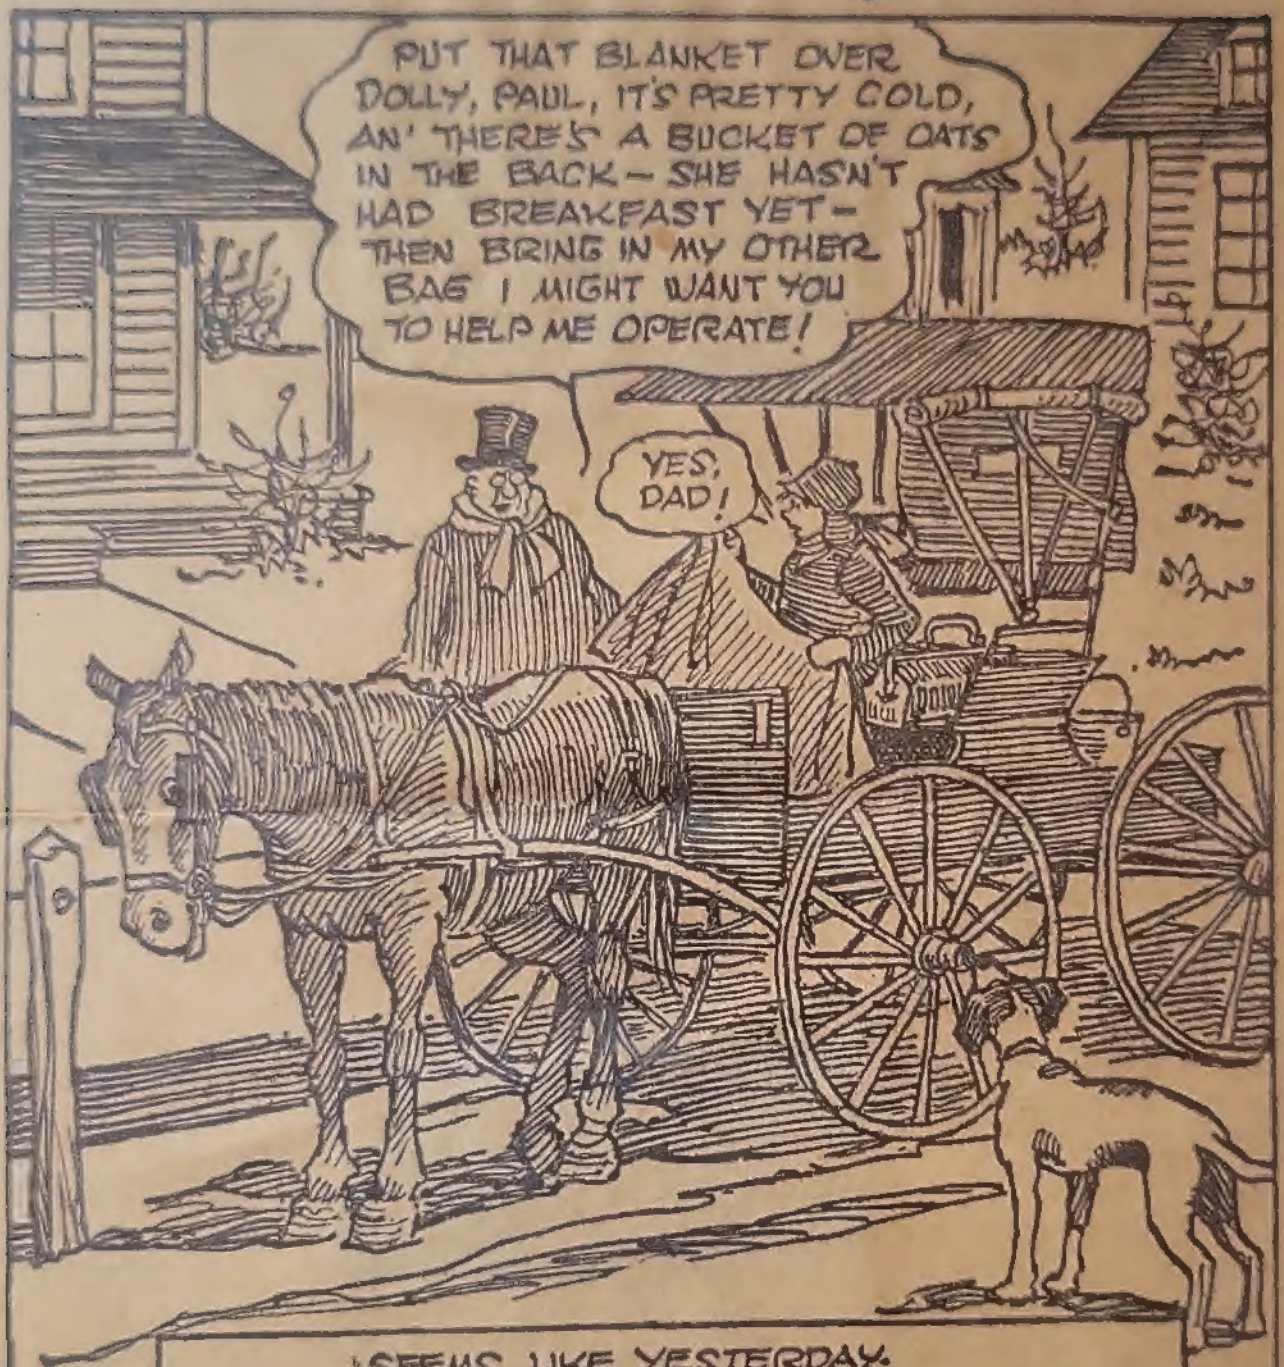
HOME-TOWN ECHOES

By C. Kessler

THAT BILL FELLER'S A LITTLE OFF IN TH' HEAD, OUGHT T' BE SHUCKIN' CORN!
ALWAYS THROWIN' A BASEBALL BACK AN' FORTA WITH THAT BRAT BOB!
PA, I HOPE YOU KNOW TH' COWS ARE IN TH' CORN
I'LL MAKE A BALL PLAYER OUT O' THAT BOY YET!
9-16-48
(Released by Consolidated News Features)

BOB FELLER, OF THE CLEVELAND INDIANS, WAS TAUGHT BASEBALL FROM THE CRADLE, BY HIS DAD ON THE FARM, NEAR VAN METER, IOWA.

HOME-TOWN ECHOES—By C. Kessler



PUT THAT BLANKET OVER DOLLY, PAUL, IT'S PRETTY COLD, AN' THERE'S A BUCKET OF OATS IN THE BACK—SHE HASN'T HAD BREAKFAST YET—THEN BRING IN MY OTHER BAG I MIGHT WANT YOU TO HELP ME OPERATE!
YES, DAD!

'SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY.

MAJOR GENERAL PAUL RAMSEY HAWLEY, CHIEF SURGEON FOR THE UNITED STATES MEDICAL CORPS, IN THE EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS, STARTED HIS MEDICAL EDUCATION EARLY IN LIFE, BACK IN WEST COLLEGE CORNER, INDIANA. 11-13-44